Dear Students, Faculty, and Well-wishers, I am pleased to present the first issue of Moran Commerce College's quarterly online newsletter. This initiative highlights the academic, cultural, and creative achievements of our college community and encourages the sharing of ideas and talents. I invite all students to actively contribute to future editions and help strengthen unity and creativity within the institution. My sincere thanks to the editorial team for their dedication in making this possible. Wishing everyone success in their academic journey.

Saraswati Puja was celebrated with great joy and devotion on 23 January 2026 at Moran Commerce College on the occasion of Vasant Panchami. Students, teachers, and staff members actively participated in the programme. The college campus was beautifully decorated, and prayers were offered to Goddess Saraswati for knowledge and success. Prasad was distributed among everyone after the puja. The celebration was a grand success and promoted cultural values, unity, and harmony among all.

Dr. Nishi Borgohain, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Economics at Moran College, joined Moran Commerce College as the Permanent Principal on February 19, 2026. A distinguished academic in the field of Economics, Dr. Borgohain has extensive experience in teaching and academic administration. Her appointment is expected to further strengthen the academic standards and overall development of the institution. The faculty members, staff, and students of Moran Commerce College along with other well wishers extended a warm welcome to her and expressed confidence and optimism in her leadership.

Moran, Jan. 25: Moran Commerce College successfully organized its College Week 2026 from January 17 to 24 with great enthusiasm and active participation from students. The programme was inaugurated by the Principal, who encouraged students to take part in various events for their all-round development. Several indoor and outdoor competitions, including quiz, carrom, chess, race, shot put, javelin throw and long jump, were held during the week. The closing ceremony was marked by prize distribution among the winners in a joyful atmosphere. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Kamaruddin Ansari, who appreciated the support of the faculty members and the active involvement of the students.

An awareness camp on the social evil of dowry was held at Natun Bolai Gaon, Khowang on 31st March 2026 by Moran Commerce College in collaboration with Pithubor College. The programme educated villagers about the harmful effects of dowry and promoted gender equality. Special guest Arun Boruah highlighted its legal and social consequences. The event received a positive response from the community.

Moran, March 24: Moran Commerce College organized an awareness programme on "Democratic Elections and Voting Rights" on Tuesday. The event, conducted by ELC, NSS Unit, and IQAC, highlighted the importance of voting and responsible citizenship. Principal Dr. Nishi Borgohain and resource person Arun Boruah addressed the students. The programme concluded with an interactive session and vote of thanks.

Moran, March 28: A group of enthusiastic students from Moran Commerce College actively participated in the Northeast Graduate Congress 2026, organized by the University of Science & Technology Meghalaya. The event was held from March 26 to March 28 at Techno City, Meghalaya. Representing the college under Dibugarh University, Assam, the students took part in various academic and interactive sessions conducted during the congress. The programme aimed to provide a platform for young minds to exchange ideas, enhance knowledge, and develop leadership skills. The students were accompanied by faculty members and participated in collaboration with the NSS unit of the college. Their active involvement in the event brought pride and recognition to Moran Commerce College.

The Women Cell, IQAC and NSS unit of Moran Commerce College celebrated International Women's Day on 8th March 2026. On this occasion, the members organized an outreach programme at Phatikasuwa Gaon. They distributed essential items such as mosquito nets, bedsheets, blankets, umbrellas and biscuits to the underprivileged women of the village. The programme aimed to support the women and spread awareness about women's empowerment. The villagers expressed their gratitude, and the programme ended successfully with a message of respect and care for women.

The NSS Unit of Moran Commerce College organized a Free Blood Test Camp on 20th March 2026 in collaboration with ICMR-RMRCNE and the Students' Union at the college premises. The camp started at 10:00 AM and provided services like blood sugar test, hemoglobin check, blood pressure measurement, and general health check-up. Students, staff, and local people actively participated in the programme. NSS volunteers helped in smooth organization and management of the camp. The initiative was successful and created awareness about health and hygiene among the participants. The programme reflected the true spirit of NSS—"Not Me But You."

Moran, March 4: The NSS Unit of Moran Commerce College organized a 7-day special camp (Feb 25-Mar 4, 2026) at Moran Town M.E. School, promoting social responsibility and leadership. Activities included cleanliness and plantation drives, self-defence training, awareness programmes, and an economic survey. The camp concluded successfully with active participation.

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Moran Commerce College organized a Mobile Photography Competition on 7th March 2026 on the occasion of International Women's Day. About 30 students participated and showcased their creativity through mobile photography. After evaluation by the judges, Rahul Kr. Shah (4th Semester) won 1st prize and Bijeet Gogoi (6th Semester) won 2nd prize.

The winners received certificates of appreciation. The event was successfully conducted under the guidance of Principal Dr. Nishi Borgohain.

Moran, March 31: An outreach recitation programme was organized by NSS in collaboration with Assam Aabriti and Sanskriti Parishad at Moran Town M.E. School. The event promoted cultural awareness and communication skills. NSS volunteers and guests actively participated. The programme concluded on a positive note, highlighting its importance in student development.
